

DIFFUSE KNAPWEED

Diffuse knapweed is an annual or biennial plant. It has a highly branched stem and a large taproot. Flowers are usually white or purple and grow from an urn-shaped head. A single plant can produce approximately 18,000 seeds! Do not let this plant seed - Dig out the plant getting as much of the taproot as possible.